We met at the harbour patrol at 1 pm and boarded the Very Maria at app 1:30 pm. The weather was calm, praise God, and they were very exited to see us. We all gathered in the crews mess and I shared first then Paul. After that the harbour patrol came with a basket of goodies for the crew. We prayed for them. The captain said that they been anchored there for 10 days and expected to be at anchor for another 10 days before they could load grain from Vancouver
